Graduation Reflections from the OMPH School Class of 2018 (Part Two)

+ Even though I've joined this magnificent school, O.M.P.H., later this 8th grade year, I'm so grateful I've had the opportunity to be involved. With all my new friends I made and the kind staff, I've come to love this school very dearly. All of the memories and knowledge I've obtained throughout these months here will stick with me for a very long time, including how to be a great, young Catholic. I'm truly thankful to my family for their decision to allow me to go here, and for the teachers who have seen the best in me. With my knowledge I've gained, I step towards the future with new friends and a heart that cares deeply for Jesus. Once again, thank you to everyone who was involved in my 8th grade year. -Alexis

+ My 11 years at O.M.P.H. have not only taught me necessary academics, but also how to form amazing relationships. The people I have met at O.M.P.H. have not only become my friends, but have become my family. The teachers and staff members have taught me Christian values and have made sure that as I go through life, I'll never forget them. As I continue to grow and move on to high school, O.M.P.H. will never be forgotten. Although my time at Our Mother of Perpetual Help has come to an end, the memories I have made will last forever. Thank you O.M.P.H. for everything. -Jocelyn

Thank you to all who made my journey throughout O.M.P.H. unforgettable. -Danny

My faith has grown through my time at O.M.P.H. and will continue to grow through my years of high school. I will truly miss this school and the friendly environment. Goodbye O.M.P.H. -Ian

+ From my 10 years going to this school, O.M.P.H. has taught me one thing: Do your best. During my 10 years at O.M.P.H. I have faced many challenges, but by doing the best that I could do, it made some of those challenges easier. Many people who are waiting for the school year to end will say that they can't wait until it's over, but in my case I know I will miss this school. I will cherish all the memories I have made here. Thank you and goodbye O.M.P.H. -Colin
