Congratulations, Class of 2017!

At the close of the school year Father John, along with Father O'Blaney from St. James Parish, celebrated the graduation liturgy for our eighth grade. We are proud of our graduates who throughout the years have grown in their faith and commitment to give witness to Jesus in their lives. As students, they accepted the challenges of hard work and mastered their studies. They are gifted young adults empowered to move on to the opportunities and challenges of high school. We pray that all their dreams and wishes for the future will be within their reach and we ask Mary, Our Mother of Perpetual Help, to watch over them always! The following awards were presented: The Doctor Laukaitis Award (highest scholastic average in the departmental grades) – Ella Cassidy and Daniel Duchesneau, The Father Jackson Award (active participation and good sportsmanship in CYO athletics) – Erin Haldeman and Ryan Hoover, The Thomas J. Mohr Memorial Scholarship: (participation in the CYO basketball program exhibiting improvement as a player, teammate and person, dedication to the team, respect for coaches, teammates, opponents, and officials) – Erin Mohr and Aiden McShea. Also recognized for participation in the scholarship contest were Erin Haldeman, Ryan Hoover, Emma Kirchner and William McCormac. The Knights of Columbus Award (consistent effort in displaying outstanding character traits, citizenship, and Christian service) – Emma Kirchner and William McCormac. The President's Award for Educational Achievement (students who have shown outstanding, commitment or intellectual development in academic subjects) – Sarah Kinney, Erin Mohr, and Lizbeth Stephan, The President's Award for Educational Excellence (students who have reached their highest levels of academic ability) – Ella Cassidy, Cecilia Deel, Daniel Duchesneau, Caroline Erb, Erin Haldeman, Emma Kirchner, and Jake Mercer. Congratulations to all our graduates!

5th Grade Completes DARE Program

OMPH School's 5th grade class completed the D.A.R.E. Program in May, under the direction of Officer Brian Dell Isola. They held a graduation reception attended by parents and Mr. Ralph Mowen, mayor of Ephrata! Congratulations to the 5th grade, and thank you Officer Dell Isola for volunteering your time to educate our students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol!
