OMPH Kindergarten Class Celebrates Johnny Appleseed Day

Our Kindergarten class, led by their teachers, celebrated Johnny Appleseed day on September 26th with a class party! The children made festive hats, and enjoyed applesauce and apple juice while learning the story of Johnny Appleseed. Johnny Appleseed, born John Chapman, was a missionary who travelled throughout Pennsylvania, Ontario, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and the lands that would become West Virginia planting nurseries. Thank you, Mrs. Gerhard and Mrs. Versoza, for continuing this tradition with our Kindergarteners!

Congratulations, Miss Gardner!

Recently, OMPH School Principal Margaret Gardner was honored in Harrisburg with the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic School Leadership Award. This award is presented each year to Principals who have served for ten years. Congratulations, Miss Gardner, and thank you for all you've done for OMPH School throughout the years!
