Congratulations to the OMPH Basketball Teams!

Basketball season at OMPH School has almost come to an end. Our middle school teams will be competing in one last tournament, CYO Rising Stars. Last month, our school held a pep rally to cheer on our varsity boys and girls teams before they competed in the CYO Round Robin tournament held at Lancaster Catholic High School. At the pep rally, all our teams were introduced, while Father John read a summary of their seasons. Best of luck to all our 8th grade students who will be moving on to play basketball as high schoolers! We thank all our basketball coaches for volunteering their time to help our children learn the game and improve their skills.
